In case of violation of the above terms, WSEAS can reject any unpublished paper or even retract any published paper.

It is truly respectable that the research was given this importance by a number of reviewers until it finally came out in the best image. I am grateful to all of you, your corrections were really spot on. Out of 270 submitted papers, only 39 of them were initially accepted after peer review. Although it was strict correction, but I feel proud to see WSEAS Transactions on Business and Economics sign on my paper. I expect them to come first. This experience created a new challenge for me to try with them again in new research. I feel I will be one of the reviewer's team one day.
