Additional comments:

I like publishing in wseas transactions on circuits and systems. My reasons are stated as follow:

1. The journal reviewers are sound internationally.
2. Their journal reviewers carefully crosscheck responses of the authors to their comments.
3. The journal renders official/legal aid when there is need for that to the research writers

Finally, I hereby advise people globally to submit their wonderful research manuscripts to the “wseas transactions on circuits and systems” for most likely publication
