“First, we from Lambung Mangkurat University and the staff would like to wish the WSEAS Editorial Team a new year 2023, wishing them even more success in managing quality international journals in the future. The author thanks the review team for correcting our article from several errors including grammar, typo, article format and list of references to make the article conform to the qualifying format from WSEAS. The reviewers have provided their best correction for our article draft errors by providing tutorials in improving the article. We also thank the WSEAS Editorial and staff who were quick, communicative and informative in responding to correspondence via email in order to communicate the process of publishing articles in this WSEAS journal.”
