“I published multiple papers with WSEAS Transaction on Fluid Mechanics about numerical simulations of wave breaking, wave structure interaction and about new numerical scheme. Every time the Reviewers and Editor’s comments, suggestions and proposals made my papers better and much more compensable. The organization is very efficient, and the feedback are very fast. I would like to thank WSEAS for this opportunity and for the professional editing service. I believe that your support can help very well the authors and their works.
