I am sincerely thankful to the WSEAS journal for the professional handling of my manuscript during the review process. As this was my first submission, I was impressed by the detailed and constructive comments provided by the reviewers. Their insights were invaluable in refining the quality of my work, and the entire process was both thorough and transparent. I appreciate the high standards upheld by the journal and the care taken to ensure the integrity of the published research. I am grateful for the opportunity to publish my work in WSEAS and look forward to future collaborations.
